PRINCE OF WALES NEARS NAVY HEAD

Reached Top of Vice-Admirals' List Last Week and Will Be Admiral Soon.

SONS ALSO TO ENTER NAVY

Princes Edward and Albert Will Begin Their Training at

Osborne in June.

LONDON. February 18.—The Prince of Wales yesterday reached the top of the vice admirats' list, and in due course he will be promoted to the rank of full admiral. The advancement of His Royal Highness to the head of the list is due to the retirement of Admiral Sir Archibad Douglas, commanding at Portsmouth, who reached the age limit of sixty-five years yesterday. The Portsmouth command will be taken over by Admiral Sir W. H. Bosanquet, and a step will be taken by Vice-Admiral Sir James Bruce. Rear-Admiral Sir F. Powell will be the new vice-admiral.

Admiral Sir F. Powell will be the new vice-admiral.

Two other admirals—Sir C. E. Dom-wile and Sir Arthur K. Wilson—reach the age limit this year, the latter on March 4, so that the promotion of the Prince to the rank of admiral cannot be long delayed.

During the coming spring the Prince's two sons, Princes Edward and Albert of Wales, will be entered as naval cadets and will begin their training at Osborne. It was on June 5, just thirty years ago this year, that the Prince of Wales began his training for the navy as a cadet on the Britannia.
